Georgia Joins its First IWG Multi-State eInstant Jackpot; Pennsylvania Adds Second Multi-State Game

Thursday, June 5, 2025: Instant Win Gaming (IWG), a leading supplier of eInstant games to NASPL and WLA-member lotteries, congratulates the Georgia Lottery Corporation on launching Mega Money Jackpots, one of the Company's two multi-state eInstant progressive jackpots. Georgia becomes the fifth lottery to join this jackpot pool, alongside Kentucky, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, and Virginia.

IWG also congratulates the Pennsylvania Lottery on expanding its participation by launching Super Drop Jackpots, its second multi-state eInstant progressive. Pennsylvania joins North Carolina and Virginia in this jackpot group, with Kentucky scheduled to follow this summer.

These latest additions underscore the growing adoption of multi-state eInstant jackpots across U.S. iLottery programs.

Multi-state progressive eInstant games generate strong player excitement thanks to the frequent occurrence of million-dollar-plus wins. Over the past 22 months, IWG multi-state games have delivered 24 jackpot prizes—averaging more than one per month—totaling more than $60 million and creating 19 new millionaires. Most notably, in April, a North Carolina player won a record-setting jackpot of $6.7 million, the largest eInstant prize in U.S. iLottery history.

Each participating lottery contributes a small percentage of sales from select eInstant games to fund the progressive prize pools. IWG manages the turnkey settlement of jackpot prize funds across all participating lotteries.

Both jackpot games are powered by IWG's InstantJackpots technology. Since all functionality is contained within IWG's InstantRGS (remote game server), no development is required from the lotteries' iLottery platform providers.

"It's incredibly exciting to see both of our multi-state eInstant jackpots continue to grow in participation," said Rhydian Fisher, CEO at Instant Win Gaming. "With Georgia joining Mega Money Jackpots and Pennsylvania now live with Super Drop Jackpots, we're seeing strong momentum in how U.S. lotteries are embracing these progressive prizes to deliver record-setting wins and greater player engagement. We're proud to support this continued expansion and look forward to welcoming even more lotteries to these networks."
